on the north side of East Eighth, between Rex and Walnut streets. A special officer blew his whistle and and the whole force swooped down on the place and scooped in Emma Bowers and Harry Raymond. It was not the intention of the officers to "pull" this place, but the row brought the blue-coated minions of the law down upon the place After this pair were safely caged, HATTIE ALLEN, on East Seventh street, was given an early morning call. Hattle and her fe-male companion were found cosily en-sconced in bed with no signs of a male about the house, so they were left un-molested. By this time it was three c'clock, and the g od work was discontinued for the night.

AT THE BAR OF JUSTICE. The news of the raid spread rapidly over the city, and by nine o'clock this morning the lobby of the Mayor's office was jammed full of men and boys was jammed full of men and boys anxious to view the gay and reckless array of femininity and their masculine admirers. Shortly after nine o'clock the motley crowd, with the exception of Raymond, was brought up from the confines of the cooler, where the females had their toitets prepared with liberal doses of paint and powder by a Salem madam, who took compassion on the unfortunate women of her own ilk. All pleaded not guilty and had their trials set for different hours on Wednesday and Thursday. One of the men gave bond for his appearance and the remainder were conducted back to the cooler. This afternoon Alice Berry plead guilty to being an inmate of the "104 ranch" and was fined $10 and costs, which she paid.

Roller Skating Extraordinary at Congres

The greatest attraction ever offered to the public and to roller skaling suthus-lasts especially, will be that offered by the management of Congress Lake, the beautiful summer resort on the Counction Valley Ratiway, for the grand opening of the excursion season, Sunday, May 31st, for which occasion the services of four of the most renowned professional roller skating combinations of the United States have been secured to give free exhibitions in the elegant pavilion. The combinations which will appear at Congress Lake on the above day need no further comment than to mention their names. The Drown-Darling Combination, consisting of the well knows Will M. Drown, Miss Jessie Darling, champions of the World, assisted by Archie Deacon, of the Winslow Rink, Roston, who will challenge any boy skater in the world. Also W. H. Barber, of Rochester, N. T., the finest bicycle rider in the country. Each performer is a star, and in the last six years have entertained over 350,000 people. The most wonderful skater is Prof. F. A. Wyman, who has also been secured for the opening of Congress Lake on the 31st inst. This gentieman is the acknowledged champion stilt, fancy, imitation, contortion and toy wagon skater, who skates on stilts four feet high, on toy wagons with six inch wheels weighing sixteen pounds, &c.

Prof. McQuiston, champion of Canada, also appears. Also Capt. Will F. Voges, of Canton, in his great military lightning drill on skates. This will be the greatest roller skating exhibition ever off-red at one time. The exhibitions will take place in the Grand Pavilion at the Lake and no extra charge will be made to the Pavilton, the railway fare including admission.

To enable all to witness the performances each combination will give two exhibitions during the day. A good band of music will also be in attendance. For time of trains and rates of fare see small bills, or apply to station agents.

Add for amount received from the State about $9,000, which is credited to the Teachers' Fund, making that amount $27,336, about the same amount expended this year. From the Contingent Fund we have deducted $2,000 from this year's amount, it being the sum expended that will not occur next year, namely, the paving of one, and curbing in front of two school properties on Fifth street, taking down the old central building, refitting the Wertz building, and advancing money to the building, and advancing money to the architect. From the interest and debt fund we deduct $5,000, as there is this much less of bonds due next year, but add $3,000 for interest on new debt.

We also create a new fund for building newscars of seven tenths of a mill.

We find sufficient funds on hand to meet all obligations of the district to the end of this fiscal year, at which time the debt will be reduced to $34,-000.

WALNUT STREET BEWER.

The Brick Work Under Way and Excavation Progressing. A DEMOCRAT reporter inspected the progress of the work on the Walnut progress of the work on the Walnut street sewer Tuesday afternoon and found that the work was being rapidly pushed forward by Mr. Robert Adams, the contractor. The workmen are busily engaged excavating between Ninth and Tenth streets, while between Tenth and South streets white between renth and South streets the brick work or sewer proper has already been put in. The sewer is made of two layers of brick, properly cemented and is circular in form. In heighth it is sufficient to permit a man to pass through in a steeping posture. This is never expected to be necessary, unless a break of some kind should occur, which is not very likely, considering the solid and substantial manner in which the sewer is being built. This morning the sewer was c pleted over South street and that street s again passable for teams.

Following is the fall in the sewer: Following is the fall in the sewer:
From North street to a point seven hundred feet south, five feet and seven inches; the four hundred feet following, one foot and three inches; from there out, three inches per one hundred feet to Whitman, Burnes & Co's, property.

The brick work on the sewer will require some six hundred thousand brick.

Where is Temple?

Two weeks ago William Temple, a blacksmith, who had a shop or Dorn alley, disappeared. He was last seen in the neighborhood of Browning's dam, near North Industry, and by some it is thought that he found repose in the waters of the dam. There is some talk of dragging the dam in the hope of finding his dead body.
